

Kaitlyn Ashley Maher's Bio

Kaitlyn Ashley Maher is only four years old, but has already endeared herself to millions across America. Her pure voice, cute smile, and infectious personality propelled her over hundreds of thousands of contestants to become the youngest person ever to make it into the Top 10 of "America's Got Talent." She has been a featured entertainer on both the Today show and Access Hollywood. Kaitlyn was recently asked to sing for the President and First Lady and participate in this year's lighting of the National Christmas Tree in Washington, DC. Through it all, Kaitlyn still enjoys being a kid. In addition to being homeschooled, she is actively involved in ballet, swimming, AWANA, singing at a local nursing home, and her church and admittedly loves to read to and "smother" her baby brother with kisses!

Quotable Quotes

- * Simon Cowell – "I've got to tell you, this is the most mature, ambitious four year old I've ever met in my life and if we didn't put her on this show, she'd be entering something else."
- * Billy Bush, on his radio show, called Kaitlyn "...the heartthrob of America's Got Talent and the show's ratings magnet."
- * Piers Morgan – "You might be the best four-year old singer in the world."
